

Important Notice

(All applicant / Accredited / Certified Health Care Organisation under all programs of NABH)

NABH has taken steps to digitize all the processes including payments by the respective Healthcare Organisations (HCO). In order to facilitate the Healthcare Organisations to reconcile the fee payment status, we request all the HCO's to follow the below steps with immediate effect:

1. Please do not make any payments into SBI Account of Quality Council of India.
2. The HCOs are advised to use online payment modes for making payments (preferably through payment gateway) by logging into your HCO account at the portal and abstain from depositing cash / cheque / DD directly into any account of Quality Council of India.
3. In case of payments made through NEFT / RTGS / IMPS with respect to current Accreditation Cycle, please update the details under the 'make payment' tab of your application form at the portal latest by February 29th, 2020.*
4. Payment details with respect to previous Accreditation Cycles shall also be updated at the portal by the HCOs, if not already done.

Disclaimer: This is for strict compliance and deviation from the same can be considered as eligible clause to take necessary action as per the Adverse Decisions policy of NABH.
